

POLICE TERRORIZE LITTLE IRISH TOWN

Tuam Residents Say They Used Torch and Looted Shop to Avenge Comrades.

LONDON, July 21.—The cathedral town of Tuam, Ireland, with its peaceable population under 4,000, went through "a perfect hell," in the words of the leading residents, following the killing of two constables from ambush while motoring to Dunmore, says a Galway despatch to the Daily News, which reads:

"The policemen having viewed the bodies of their comrades at the station appear to have got completely out of hand. Fully armed they marched into the streets, smashed public houses, and it is alleged looted them, dragged young men out of bed, threatened to shoot them and then set fire to some of the most valuable properties in the township. They only retired to their quarters after an orgy of destruction. The damage is estimated at $500,000.

"As I entered the town this morning it recalled nothing as much as some of the ruined Belgian and French towns and bore a striking resemblance to wrecked Albert."

IRISH STRIKE TO AID LARKIN.

General Walkout in Dublin "to Put Pressure on United States."

DUBLIN, July 21.—A general strike was called in Dublin to-day to bring about the release of James Larkin, head of the Transport Workers' Union, who is serving a sentence in the United States on conviction of criminal anarchy. Labor here is divided on the question of the strike as a method of applying pressure to the American government, and the order to lay down tools was not generally obeyed. A procession was planned for this afternoon to demonstrate in force outside the American Consulate.

More police were on duty to-day than had been seen for months, and it was believed in many quarters that trouble were to be expected.

ing Case.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., July 21.—The jury in Federal Court in the trial of C. A. Wood and Company, Buffalo Chilled, indicted on twenty-one counts for profiteering, returned to court this morning, after being out all night, having disagreed on a verdict. The case will come up for another trial.
